
Columbia Elementary School

Overview

Columbia Elementary School houses grades Pre-School (Special Ed), Kindergarten, Grade 1 and Grade 2. Columbia Elementary School is located at 1502 Elm Street on the South-East side of town. There are approximately 550 students at Columbia and twenty-eight (28) teachers.

Recent statistics show an attendance rate of 98% Other recognized attributes note a strong phonics-based reading program with support from three (3) computer labs and classroom computers; remediation support early in reading and math; classroom ratios at 18.1 (with teaching assistants); high academic standards for pupil progression; individual opportunities to meet specific advanced skills needed in reading and math; and state incentive money for improved test scores for the last six (6) years.